

CERTIFICATE OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES IN FORENSIC STUDIES
Program Coordinator: Maria A. Rosado, PhD
Sociology and Anthropology Dept., CHSS

Program Structure

A minimum of 12 semester hours (sh) is required for the completion of the CUGS in Forensic Studies. Students will be required to take at least three Forensic courses for 9-10 (sh). Beyond the required 9-10 (sh), students can choose to: take an additional Forensic course or take a course from the Electives Bank for an additional 3-4 (sh), for a total of 12-14 (sh) to fulfill the minimum requirement. Students may choose to take additional courses from the Electives Bank. Students should consult with the Forensic Studies Coordinator, Dr. Maria Rosado, in declaring the CUGS in Forensic Studies and in planning their program of study.

Students will be required to take at least three Forensic courses for 9-10 (sh):

Course	Gen Ed	Prerequisite/ Restrictions	Semester Hours (s.h.)	Offered
*ANTH 02315 Forensic Anthropology	No	Yes: ANTH 02201 or BIOL 10210	4	Once every other year
LAWJ05.290 Forensic Law	No	None	3	Once per semester
Foundations of Computer Forensics CS 07.352	No	None	3	Once per year
CHEM 05249 Introduction to Forensic Science	Yes	None	3	Once per year

* Forensic Anthropology is a designated Lab Science course.