WHY CHOOSE LIBERAL STUDIES?

Because of the way the Liberal Studies program is designed, our students gain the ability to think in a multidisciplinary way, and they go into the rest of their lives with the ability to handle a diverse array of situations at once.

Our program allows students to focus on multiple areas of study, as opposed to just one which gives our students the ability to handle many different problems at once. Interdisciplinarity is the ability to apply one discipline to another and is a key skill sought by employers.

THE BOTTOM LINE

Rowan University's Liberal Studies: Humanities/Social Science program has a wide variety of sequences that students can choose from, which allows our students the flexibility to customize their college education to ultimately help them reach their ideal career path. Additionally, our faculty and staff go the extra mile to ensure that students are getting whatever help they need and that they pick the best combination of sequences for their future. A few of the most popular sequence choices include Sociology, Business, American Studies, Law & Justice, Health Studies, PR in the Workplace, and Philosophy & Religion; while students pursuing teacher certification often choose sequences in American Studies, Writing Arts, English, History, Geography and Math.

Finally, Rowan offers Liberal Studies: Humanities/Social Science students the opportunity to mix their passions with practicality, letting them take courses they can really sink their teeth into while also setting them on the right path for their future.

"A liberal arts education fosters valuable 'soft skills' like problem-solving, critical thinking and adaptability. Such skills are hard to quantify, and they don't create clean pathways to high-paying first jobs. But they have long-run value in a wide variety of careers." - New York Times
