

International Studies Newsletter

Rowan University

February, 2016

Introduction to International Studies (IS25.300) offered in the fall!

Introduction to International Studies will be offered for the first time in fall 2016. This core course for International Studies majors, taught by Dr. Christy Thornton, will be offered on MW 9:30 and MW 12:30. The course will NOT be offered in the spring, so all International Studies majors who have completed Comp II should sign up for the fall. An interview with Dr. Thornton is posted on the International Studies homepage.

For more information about the IS major and concentration and scholarship opportunities related to international studies, go to http://www.rowan.edu/colleges/chss/inter\_majors/internationalstudies/

Rowan in the World, an International Studies
lecture series, presents:

Environmental Governance After the Paris Agreement

A talk by Dr. Jordan Howell,
Assistant Professor of Geography and Environment, Rowan University

Monday, Feb. 29 12:30-1:45

Student Center room 144

Interested in learning more about this issue?

Another talk will be held on
Wed March 23, at 5pm in Bozorth 114

Can we get there? International Politics and Climate Change after Paris

Dr. David Clowney, Philosophy & Religion
(this talk is part of the Philosophy Department's "Theorizing Rowan" series)

Sigma Iota Rho, Honor Society for International Studies

Rowan now has a new chapter of Sigma Iota Rho, the national honor society for International Studies; our chapter is called Zeta Rho. Although the first inauguration ceremony will be in spring 2017, we plan to meet before spring break to elect officers and discuss activities. Please look for an email about the society and fill out the doodle poll—and come to the first meeting!

SAVE THE DATE FOR Careers in International Security: A Panel Discussion

Are you interested in pursuing a career related to international security? Come to the first International Studies Career panel on Wednesday March 30, 5:00-6:15, in Robinson 308

Panelists include SSA Zrinka Dilber, an FBI agent who served overseas as an attaché for the FBI, and two Rowan graduates: Mr. Greg Archetto, a consultant who worked at the Department of Defense and State Department for over a decade, and Mr. Joe Martella, who worked in security at the World Trade Center and U.N.

Upcoming Events

Look for more information about other events sponsored or co-sponsored by International Studies to be held this spring:

- March: Dr. Tahiya McCoy Nyahuma, "Women Affect National Public Policy through Global Governance: The Case of Ghana's Domestic Violence Act"
- March: Women in Science and Engineering: International Comparisons
- April: Fulbright Scholarship orientations
- April: Talk on US Military Aid in Theory and in Practice, by Mr. Greg Archetto