

HUMAN SERVICES

Popular Double Majors

Africana Studies, Law & Justice, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology, Spanish

Popular Minors

Communication Studies, Ethics, French, German Studies, Human Resource Management, Jewish Studies, Law & Justice Studies, Leadership Studies, Medical Social Science, Psychology, Sociology, Spanish, Urban Studies

Popular CUGS (Certificates of Undergraduate Study)

Applied Spanish, Community Corrections, Ethics, Global Health Studies, Management & Leadership, Public Policy, Medical Social Science, Social Justice & Social Change, Spanish, Women, Gender & Society

Customize Your Degree

WHY CHOOSE HUMAN SERVICES?

Our students can gain additional skills in: intake and interviewing, assessment skills, self-awareness and positive self-regard, resource coordination, cultural competency, documentation skills, community advocacy skills, theoretical application, policy analysis, Ethical decision making and more.

Today's employers are clear about their need to have employees who are able to grasp the entire picture of their clients and their business. The Human Service's program focuses on the Person In Environment, including cultural competency and the utilization of their Sociological Imagination, promotes students who can examine the entire scope of a business in order to help that business position itself for the environment in which it operates and its future circumstances. Our Human Services majors are uniquely qualified to meet the expanding needs of today's Human Services provider in a shifting socio-political environment.

Learn more

THE BOTTOM LINE

Our Human Services program equips students to acquire jobs in Government Settings, The Non-Profit Sector School-Based Settings, The Criminal Justice System, Hospitals, Community Mental Health Settings, Children and Youth Departments and in Elder Care. Your path can be designed to focus on direct care administration or criminal justice.

HUMAN SERVICES QUICK FACTS

Dyronda

"While I always wanted to be a part of helping others, I didn't quite have a clear career path of how to get there. My future goal is to work with organizations like FEMA or the American Red Cross. My major gives me a lot of options to explore."

Internship Sites

Board of Social Services
Camden City School District
Catholic Charities
Division of Child Protection and Permanency
Juvenile Justice Commission
Legacy Treatment Center
LUCY Outreach
My Father's House
SODAT (Substance and Other Drug Abuse Treatment), Inc. of NJ
Volunteers of America

Potential Career Paths

Caseworker/Case Manager
Community Organizer
Early Intervention Specialist
Higher Education Professional
(Academic Advisor, Career Counselor, Housing Director, etc.)
Mental Health Counselor
Protective Service Worker
School Counselor
Social Worker (Child/Family, School, Hospice, Psychiatric)
Social and Community Services Manager
Quality Assurance Coordinator
Victim Advocate

Liberal Studies degree offers what the New York Times says are "vauable 'soft skills' like problem-solving, critical thinking and adaptability. Such skills are hard to quantify, and they don't create clean pathways to high-paying first jobs. But they have long-run value in a wide variety of careers." - New York Times

