As an accomplished Associate Professor in Law and Justice Studies and Program Coordinator for International Studies, I bring a wealth of academic expertise to my role. My dedication to fostering global understanding has led me to lead numerous trips abroad and seek grant funding to increase global awareness at Rowan University. I was also awarded a Fulbright to serve as the US Studies Chair in Mexico from 2024 to 2025 and earned recognition with a Fulbright-Hays seminar award in 2023. I have developed three online courses and taught extensively in both undergraduate and graduate Law and Justice Studies programs, Disaster Preparedness and Emergency Management, and International Studies. My commitment to personal and professional growth is evident through my pursuit of certificates in Spanish and Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion. With a substantial body of scholarly work, including two books and many peer-reviewed journal articles, I am dedicated to producing impactful scholarship that advances our understanding of law and justice.
