

ROWAN UNIVERSITY

DEPARTMENT OF WORLD LANGUAGES

ITALIAN STUDIES MINOR

The Italian Studies Minor may be declared in the Department of World Languages, Bunce Hall 305, with the Program Advisor, Christine Larsen Britt (larsen-britt@rowan.edu) in Bunce Hall, Suite 218), at the University Advising Center, Suite 323, Savitz Hall, or at the Registrar's Office, Suite 121, Savitz Hall. This program allows students to add to their linguistic proficiency in Italian as well as their cultural, social and historical competence, which will benefit them on the job market, especially considering the strong presence of Italian companies, business activities, and institutions in our territory (i.e. foreign and public service, international sales and business, humanitarian work, government, politics, international law). The program will also support students' growth and development as global citizens and will prepare them to interact with a different population and culture with greater cultural awareness and sensitivity, in accordance with the mission of the Department of World Languages.

The Minor in Italian Studies consists of 6 courses (18 credits). Students must receive a grade of at least "C-" in all courses for the program. Each of the courses listed below is worth 3 credits.
